

City of Redlands Public Art Inventory

Artwork Title	Artist	Description	Medium	Subject Matter	Materials	Size	Weight	History of the Artwork	Value	Location	Date and method of original acquisition
The Casa Loma Hotel	Original artist unknown, restored in 1996 by Vernon Dornbach	Mural showing the historic Casa Loma Hotel	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Paint and canvas	Roughly 36'x48'		Originally displayed in the offices of the Downtown Redlands Business Association		Currently on display at the City of Redlands Council Chambers at 35 Cajon Street, Suite 4
California Condor	Artist unknown	Sculpture depicting a California Condor perched on a tree branch, with its wings outstretched	Sculpture	Wildlife	Steel					Currently on display at the San Bernardino County Museum at 2024 Orange Tree Lane	Outside agency
Culmination in Singularity	Lance Jost	Sculpture depicting a fern-like structure wrapping around a sphere	Sculpture	Abstract	Steel					Currently on display in the center of the Research Drive cul-de-sac	Original install in 1991. Private
Fruitful Pause	Gerry Berg, sculptor. Roger L. Grulke, designer	Sculpture depicts a grove worker, with orange picking bag, reaching for an orange hanging from a branch	Sculpture	Historic Redlands	Bronze and steel			Purchased and installed as part of the surrounding development		Currently on display at 811 Tri City Center	Purchased and installed by Tri-City Center, LTD. Dedicated September 18, 1987. Private
Grace Stewart Mullen Memorial	Artist unknown	Sculpture depicts Grace Stewart Mullen, founder of Redlands Community Music Association	Sculpture	Redlands historical figure	Bronze and granite					Currently on display in the Redlands Bowl at Grant Street and Glenwood Drive
George S. Hinckley Memorial	Artist unknown	Sculpture fountain with relief of a deer fawn laying down in leaves	Sculpture	Redlands historical figure	Concrete					Currently on display in Smiley Park at 30 Cajon Street
Interiorem Pulchritudinem	John Gilbert Luebtow	Sculpture is a steel I-beam with glass center section	Sculpture	Abstract	Steel and glass			Purchased as part of Mayor's Art Initiative	$20,000.00	Currently on display in City Hall parking lot at 35 Cajon Street	June 14, 2018, original acquisition by purchase and sales agreement
Isis	Roslyn Mazzilli	Sculpture is steel bars painted yellow with white tips	Mixed media, steel and paint	Abstract	Steel and concrete					Currently on display at 1980 Orange Tree Lane	Created 1988. Private
Ishi Dohroh	Artist unknown	Sculpture is a Japanese stone lantern	Sculpture	Cultural items	Stone			Commemorates Hino, Japan, one of Redlands' sister cities		Currently on display in Smiley Park at 30 Cajon Street
President William McKinley Memorial	Artist unknown	Sculpture depicts former US president William McKinley	Sculpture	US historical figure	Bronze and granite			Commemorates former US president William McKinley who was assassinated in 1901		Currently on display in Smiley Park at 125 West Vine Street	Unveiled on May 7, 1903
Mother and Child	Joseph L. Castle III	Sculpture abstractly depicts a child being cradled by its mother	Sculpture	Abstract	Bronze and concrete					Currently on display in Smiley Park at 125 West Vine Street	Donated in 1994 by Friends of A.K. Smiley Public Library
Reflections	Saim Caglayan	Sculpture is four white Carrara marble slabs, in opposing pairs stood vertically on their short edge, with black marble trim strips	Sculpture	Abstract	Marble		2400 pounds	Installed as part of the surrounding development	$95,000.00	Currently on display at 310 West State Street	Acquired in 2024 by donation
The Peloton Takes the Classic Curve	Kathleen King	Sculpture depicts a group of cyclists riding around a corner	Sculpture	Sports	Mixed media, steel and paint			Originally designed for a business park in Rancho Cucamonga, the piece was repurposed for the course of the Redlands Bicycle Classic		Currently on display in Simonds Parkway across from 1716 Garden Street	Created 2018, acquired by donation in 2023
Semi-Quaver	Paul Lindhard	Sculpture depicts a semiquaver musical note	Sculpture	Music	Mixed media, steel and granite			Installed as part of the surrounding development to acknowledge the Wyatt Opera House which once occupied the site		Currently on Display at 6 West Colton Avenue	Purchased and dedicated by La Mancha Development Company in 1989
Redlands 9-11 Memorial	Lawrence Noble	Sculpture depicts the Statue of Liberty releasing three doves	Sculpture	US history	Mixed media, bronze and concrete			Erected as a memorial to the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks	$40,000.00	Currently on display in Smiley Park located at 30 Cajon Street	Dedicated September 11, 2002
Smiley Brothers Memorial	Artist unknown	Sculpture depicts Albert K. and Alfred H. Smiley	Sculpture	Redlands historical figure	Bronze			Commissioned to commemorate Patron Saints Day in Redlands		Currently on display in front of A.K. Smiley Library at 125 West Vine Street
Watchorn Memorial	Linda Pew	Sculpture depicts Rober, Emory, and Alma Watchorn	Sculpture	Redlands historical figure	Mixed media, bronze and granite			Donated by the Watchorns to honor Abraham Lincoln and memorializing their son		Currently on display in front of the Lincoln Shrine at 125 West Vine Street

Widows and Orphans Memorial	Linda Hundevadt Pew	Sculpture depicts a mother and child, head-to-head, holding a folded flag	Sculpture	US history	Mixed media, bronze and granite			World War II veteran Wallace Sanchez engaged Ms. Pew to create the sculpture to honor the widows and orphans of US soldiers killed during World War II	$16,900.00	Currently on display in Jennie Davis Park at New York Street and Redlands Boulevard	Dedicated May 1, 2008, acquisition date unknown
Spaceman Mural	Christopher Robert Becktel and Alfredo Perez Salmeron	Mural depicts an astronaut holding the Earth like a basketball	Wet media	Sports	Paint on sports surface			Part of Music Changing Lives and Stronger Together Now's Spread Paint Not Hate program	$9,609.78	Currently on display in Israel Beal Park on Riverview Drive between Furlow Drive and Colorado Street	Installed on June 2, 2021, acquisition by license agreement
Geometric Mural	Christopher Robert Becktel and Alfredo Perez Salmeron	Mural depicts multicolored geometric shapes	Wet media	Abstract	Paint on sports surface			Part of Music Changing Lives and Stronger Together Now's Spread Paint Not Hate program	$9,609.78	Currently on display in Texonia Park at 1321 Texas Street	Installed on June 2, 2021, acquisition by license agreement
Unity Mural	Christopher Robert Becktel and Alfredo Perez Salmeron	Mural depicts a music record with "unity" written in the center. Sheet music is coming out of the record. The space between the 3-point line and the key contains depictions of waves on the southern half and flames on the northern half of the court	Wet media	Abstract	Paint on sports surface			Part of Music Changing Lives and Stronger Together Now's Spread Paint Not Hate program	$9,609.78	Currently on display in Texonia Park at 1321 Texas Street	Installed on June 2, 2021, acquisition by license agreement
Sunfair	Benjamin Allanoff	Sculpture depicts a steel circle inside a steel square	Sculpture	Abstract	Steel			Part of the City's Art on Loan program	$3,000.00	Currently on display at the entrance to Community Park at 1521 North Church Street	Installed 2024, acquisition by loan agreement
Citrus Parking Structure Mural	Christine Curry	Mural depicts a park scene on the northeast corner. Depicts a classic truck in front of orange groves on the northern side	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					On display on City owned parking structure located on East Citrus Avenue between South 5th Street and South 6th Street	Installed 2003, acquisition by independent contractor agreement with artist
Western Star Soap Advert	Artist unknown, restored by Larry Dierdorff in 1985 and 2015	Mural depicts an advertisement for Western Star Soap	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on brick					Located on the west façade of the building located at 109 East State Street	Acquisition by façade and access easement agreement with David & Nancy Jacobson Revocable Trust 4/3/2008
Mermaid Queen German Family Soap Advert	Artist unknown, restored by Larry Dierdorff in 1985 and 2015	Mural depicts an advertisement for Mermaid Queen German Family Soap	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on brick					Located on the west façade of the building located at 109 East State Street	Acquisition by façade and access easement agreement with David & Nancy Jacobson Revocable Trust 4/3/2008
Orange Trees Mural	Larry Dierdorff	Mural depicts orange trees	Wet media	Agriculture	Mixed media, paint on concrete panel					Currently on display on the west side of the building located at 17 South 5th Street	Installed 2014. Private
Grapevines Mural	Larry Dierdorff	Mural depicts grapevines and local mountains	Wet media	Agriculture	Mixed media, paint on brick					Currently on display on the west side of the building located at 404 East State Street	Installed 2022, purchased by Bill & Janice Lemann with thanks to Suzanne and Jake Doll. Private
Inland Empire Area Map	Original artist unknown, restored by Larry Dierdorff	Mural depicts a road map of the Inland Empire area	Wet media	Historic Southern California	Mixed media, paint on stucco			Original painted in 1950		Currently on display on the west side of the building located at 215 East Redlands Boulevard	Restoration funded by Redlands Sunrise Rotary. Private
Citrus Groves	Jeff Owens	Mural depicts a landscape of orange groves, palm trees, and local mountains	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on stucco					Currently on display on the west side of the building located at 202 East State Street	Dedicated 1989, funded by Dole Corporation, Redlands Federal Bank, and Mr. and Mrs. James Glaze, Sr. Private
Love Mural	Artist unknown	Mural depicts the word "love" in cursive with a stylized heart at the end	Wet media	Text	Mixed media, paint on stucco					Currently on display on the east side of the building located at 27 East State Street	Private
Child with Umbrella, Dog, and Orange Mural	Larry Dierdorff	Mural depicts a young child, standing in the rain, holding an umbrella over herself and a dog while reaching for an orange which is on the ground	Wet media	Fictional small town scene	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the southeast side of the building located at 672 East Redlands Boulevard	Installed 2021. Funded by Dan Fisher and Tish Morse, with thanks to the Mubarkeh family. Private
July 4th in Redlands	Larry Dierdorff	Mural depicts Uncle Same raising his right hand over a landscape of orange trees and local mountains, his left hand is holding a bunch of oranges. The upper left corner shows a squadron of airplanes with the word "FIREWORKS" in a banner spanning the same corner	Wet media	US and local history	Mixed media, paint on stucco					Currently on display on the east side of the building located at 129 East State Street	Dedicated July 4th, 1990, funded by the Redlands 4th of July Committee, Inc. Private

Hate Burger Mural	Christine Coates	Mural depicts a bare human skull with mouth open trying to eat floating hamburgers and French fries. A lizard sits atop the skull	Wet media	Commercial art	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the northwest side of the building located at 31 East Citrus Avenue	Private
Redlands Orange Mural	Geoff Gouveia	Mural depicts a stylized orange in center, with figures of people standing beside it	Wet media	Redlands history	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the south side of the building located at 22 East State Street	Private
Stag Skull Mural	Artist unknown	Mural depicts a stag skull on a floral print background	Wet media	Wildlife	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the south side of the building located at 22 East State Street	Private
Werewolf Mural	Artist unknown	Mural depicts a stylized werewolf howling	Wet media	Fantasy	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the south side of the building located at 24 East State Street	Private
Mural on Pacific Premier Bank	Christine Coates	Mural depicts a market scene with a classic truck parked and people conversing with each other	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the north side of the building located at 201 East State Street	Installed 2007. Private
Chapel Perspective and LaFourcade Community Garden	Rudy Estanque	Chapel Perspective depicts the University of Redlands Memorial Chapel at sunset. The viewpoint is facing east. LaFourcade depicts the historical community garden located outside the administration building of the University of Redlands	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on stucco			Winners of the 2007 University of Redlands Plein Aire Art Show		Currently on display on the east side of the building located at 128 East State Street	Dedicated 2009, funded by Downtown Redlands Business Association, University of Redlands' Office of Community Service Learning, Capital Source Bank. Private
Redlands Jewelers Murals	Christine Coates	The north façade depicts a late 1800's to early 1900's street scene showing a couple peering into the windows of a shop. The east façade depicts a jeweler showing a necklace to the viewer	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Both pieces currently on display on the north and east sides of the building located at 31 East Citrus Avenue	Private
Redlands Theatre Festival Mural	Artist unknown	Mural depicts an outdoor amphitheater with a theatre building in the center	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on stucco					Currently on display on the east side of the building located at 129 East State Street
A Run Thru Redlands Mural	Karen Wilmot, restored by Larry Dierdorff	Mural depicts Victorian and Queen Anne style homes	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on stucco					Currently on display on the west side of the building located at 214 East Redlands Boulevard	Install c. 1980, restored 2014, funded by Redlands Kiwanis Club. Private
"V" Shaped Sculpture	Christos Hardt, designer	Sculpture is a stylized "V" in a circle	Sculpture	Commercial art	Steel			Installed as a condition of approval of the surrounding development		Currently on display at the northwest corner of Alabama Street and Orange Avenue	Installed 2024 by Venue at Orange, LLC
Orange Blossom Trail Mural - Redlands History	Ekaterina Orlovie	Mural depicts oranges, a mission style building, the "R" on the local mountains, the Redlands Bowl amphitheatre, the Moorish revival style A.K. Smiley Library, and a Hispanic mother and child	Wet media	Historic Redlands	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the Orange Blossom Trail on the east side of its intersection with North Dearborn Street	Installed 2023, commissioned by Redlands Sunrise Rotary
Redlands' Sister Cities Murals	Artist unknown	Mural depicts a Chinese temple next to a pond for Linli China, a cathedral for San Miguel de Allende Mexico, and a bridge and pagoda for Hino Japan	Wet media	Redlands Sister Cities	Mixed media, paint on concrete block					Currently on display on the Orange Blossom Trail on the west side of its intersection with North Dearborn Street	Funded by the Redlands Sister Cities Association
Orange Street Alley Park Umbrellas	No artist	Nylon umbrellas suspended on wire and held by u-bolts	Dry media	Abstract	Mixed media, nylon umbrellas, wire, and u-bolts			Originally suggested by former city manager Enrique Martinez		Currently on display above the alleyway located at 50 Orange Street	Paid for and installed by City of Redlands
Sister Cities Clock Tower	Dan Romero	Depicts arches with clocks set to the local time for Linli China, Hino Japan, and San Miguel de Allende Mexico. Set in the center of the piece is a metal track on which cue balls roll down and are then lifted via an ascending chain mechanism	Sculpture	Redlands Sister Cities	Mixed media, steel, plexiglas, pool balls				$66,000.00	Currently on display in Ed Hales Park located at North 5th Street and East State Street	Installed 2019, funded by Tim and Carol Rochford and Redlands Sister City Association, payments passed through City of Redlands. Acquisition by written agreement
LGBTQ Mural	Pulp Press, Jillian Sander, Bridget Bilbo, Sofia Diaz	Mural depicts LGBTQ figures in different colors	Wet media	LGBTQ History	Mixed media, paint and asphalt				$8,000.00	Currently on display within the crosswalk between the buildings located at 101 Cajon Street and 29 South 5th Street	Installed 2021. Paid for by City of Redlands
Omnitrans Bus Bench Murals	Multiple artists	Omnitrans bus benches painted with various patterns	Wet media	Abstract	Mixed media, paint and concrete benches			Program initiated by Omnitrans. 14 benches have been painted	$22,000.00	Various locations throughout the city	First benches painted in 2023. Outside agency